Graded Geometry in Mechanics and Field Theory

Janusz Grabowski

Institute of Mathematics, Polish Academy of Sciences, Poland
jagrab@impan.pl

ABSTRACT

We present the concept of a graded bundle, which is a generalisation of a vector bundle, its linearisation, and double structures of this kind. We then present applications of these structures in geometric mechanics and field theory: systems with higher order Lagrangians and the Plateau problem.